HISTORY, REPEATER.

OUT of a sky that mirrored flame,
Past all the spirit host,
To soothe the weary ruler came
A gaunt, gray, gangling ghost,
And down he slumped his gawky frame
At his old favorite post.
Still simple as a little child,
The ghost crossed leg on knee.
"Don't worry, son," Abe Lincoln smiled,
"They talked like that of me."

The breeze from out the Capitol
Blew words in scorning meant,
As "Such ineptness must appal!"
"Unwise!" "Incompetent!"
"Usurper!" "Weaker than a doll!"
"On our destruction bent!"
But, as there sped each poisoned shaft,
The ghost grinned cheerfully.
"Don't worry, son," Abe Lincoln laughed,
"They said much worse of me!"

Upon the desk the papers piled—
Pandora's evil pack;
The pacifist petition mild;
The savage, hot attack.
But still the ghost, gay as a child,
Slapped Wilson on the back.
"I see the breed is just the same,"
Abe Lincoln laughed in glee.
"Don't worry, son! It's just the game
They tried in vain on me."

NOTICES.

Mr. Owen Miller, Secretary American Federation of Musicians, 3535 Pine St., St. Louis, Mo.

Dear Sir and Brother:

Kindly publish a notice in the next issue of the International Musician to the effect that persons of enemy origin, born in the United States, must be in possession of their birth certificates or an affidavit as to their birth place, such affidavit to be endorsed by the British Consul in order to enable them to enter the Dominion of Canada. As many members of the American Federation of Musicians, born in this country are of alien enemy parentage, it is necessary for them to be advised that they must submit proof when entering the Dominion of Canada that they are of American birth.

Fraternally yours,
JOS. N. WEBER.

New York, N. Y., Feb. 25, 1918.

PRESIDENT'S DECISION.

Mr. Owen Miller, Secretary American Federation of Musicians, St. Louis, Mo.

Dear Sir and Brother:

Under the laws of the American Federation of Musicians, orchestra or bands composed of members of one local may accept engagements in the jurisdiction of other locals (theatre season engagements excepted. This liberal rule of the Federation seems to be construed by some contracting members to imply that they have a right to maintain agents or offices in the jurisdiction of locals to which they do not belong for the purpose of soliciting engagements in such jurisdiction.

Contracting members, who in future are guilty of any such action will thereby place their membership in the Federation in jeopardy.

This executive order is binding upon all members of the Federation pending the modification or reversal of same by the next convention.

Fraternally yours,
JOS. N. WEBER,
President A. F. of M.

Attest: OWEN MILLER,
Seretary.

EDWARD A. HALLOWAY,
Band Leader.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 10, 1918.

Dear Sir and Brother:

In order to correctly inform Locals and members of the A. F. of M. as to the prevailing scale for State Fair engagements in this jurisdiction, we herewith attach copy of sections of Local Price List covering same.

We found after careful investigation that heretofore visiting bands have charged many different prices for said work, and only very few conformed srictly to the Price List of Local No. 19.

We take it for granted that this was due more to carelessness and misunderstanding than to any intent to evade National and Local Laws, and consequently are satisfied to let the matter rest there. This, however, applies to past performances only, as in future we will insist and demand strict conformity to existing laws.

We want it known that we have no grievance against the State Fair Board, as they have always shown a disposition to be fair with our members in the past, and we have no reason to expect anything different in the future. The fault was not with the State Board, but with our A. F. of M. manager who contracted for the work, and we ask you to place this letter and list in the hands of your band managers, so as to avoid similar conditions in the future, which are not only unfair to all concerned, but humiliating as well.

Fraternally,
SPRINGFIELD MUSICIANS ASSOCIATION, LOCAL No. 19, A. F. OF M.

Section XXVII—State Fairs, Etc. —Time from 8 a. m. until 5 p. m. with 2 hours' intermission for lunch, or 1 hour for meals if furnished by parties engaging music, per day, per man $5; single concert, time not to exceed 3 hours, $3.

Section XXVIII—Carnivals, horse shows, political meetings, fire works, etc., when held at State Fair Grounds during State Fair time, time not to exceed 3 hours, $3; additional hours before midnight, $0.75; additional hours after midnight, $1.00.

On all band engagements both leader and manager or conractor must receive double the price per man, and no band to fill engagement with less than 18 men. Should the leader act as contactor he must receive triple the price per man.

CHAS. F. RAUTH,
Pres. Local No. 19, A. F. of M.

Theatrical conditions in this jurisdiction are not very encouraging, as Gus Sun, of whom you have no doubt heard, has secured full control of all legitimate houses, and as per his usual custom, has turned them into picture theaters, witih one piano as the musical feature. He still has one house of very cheap family vaudeville which he allows the good people of this city to patronize, and which plays (as per his ads) very exclusive acts imported from the Palace, London, or from the large Keith houses at 15c and 25c. This fellow is always in trouble with the Stage Employees, and on account of his actions this season, is surely exciting popular opinion against himself.

THE LYON & HEALY

IMPROVED OWN MAKE TRUMPET

In Bb and A, Low and High Pitch, Rotary change to A. Adjusting ring on 3d Valve Slide.

This instrument possesses, in the highest degree, the distinctive voice quality which marks the difference between the genuine trumpet and the "hybrid" long cornet so often found masquerading as a trumpet. Clear, sparkling and martial in tone, yet possessing in mezzo voce a beautiful, lyric, singing quality, it is the character of instrument demanded by the great writers of oratorio, symphony and grand opera. It has the flexibility, power and timbre necessary to the rendition of the highest class of music. In smoothness of scale, ease of blowing and facility for blowing in the extreme high and low registers it has no rival among instruments of its family.

Built in low pitch and supplied with high pitch slides or in low pitch only, as desired.

Sold on easy terms if desired, and sent on one week's free trial.

Price $70.00 to $120.00

According to Finish.

Without Rotary change to a, deduct $5.00 in any finish.

This Trumpet is built on perfect trumpet porportions, of the very best materials obtainable, by workmen of the highest class. It is guaranteed for its entire lifetime against any possible defect in workmanship or material.

BOSTON SYMPHONY CAMOUFLAGE.

In the January International Musician there appeared an article entitled "Tell It To the Marines." This had reference to the claim of Mr. C. A. Ellis, of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, that Dr. Muck was a Swiss subject. The article attracted considerable attention throughout the country and brought some responses. Among the best of these is one from an ex-member of the orchestra, which shows that Maj. Higginson is not such a musical philanthropist after all.

Here it is:

Mr. Owen Miller, Secretary A. F. of M., St. Louis, Mo.

Dear Sir: I was much pleased with the editorial in the January number of The International Musian "Tell It To the Marines."

Mr. Rudolph Gaus, pianist, a Swiss, made the statement (in Musical America) that the Swiss law allows a man to be a Swiss citizen, while he is still a citizen of another country. So that Dr. Muck can be a Swiss citizen and also a citizen of Germany at the same time.

Camouflage!

Now as to the financial sacrifice of Major Higginson, there is perhaps also camouflage.

Mr. C. A. Ellis is the Major's man Friday. Mr. C. A. Ellis is manager of the B. S. O. and also manager for many of the best money drawing stars of the musical world, Paderewski, Melba, Ferrar, Kreisler, etc.

Of late years the B. S. O. certainly has not been a loser. The musical artists under Ellis must clean up a tidy sum each season. Now, in case the B. S. O. shows a deficit of a few thousands of dollars, say five to ten thousand, the tremendous gains of the astute Mr. Ellis cover it many, many times. In other words, the philanthropist supporter of the B. S. O., Maj. Higginson, is as keen after good American dollars as any living man, but he likes to be pointed out as a leading citizen, founder of the B. S. O., etc., while in reality he is a sharp business man.

Mr. Ellis cares as much for musical art as my old shoe does, for he told me once, when I was on a tour with him for Mme. Melba, that he had not heard her sing for seven years. All this time she was under his direction.

The five years of the Boston Opera, Maj. Higginson attended not over four or five times. These times to hear Wagner Opera under Weingartner.

Music is purely a business with the management of the B. S. O. and a very profitable business. Now, no one can object to that. The objection is the pretense that it is run on an artistic plan and for unselfish reasons.

The stock speech which Maj. Higginson used to deliver to the orchestra at the close of the season was:

"Gentlemen, the season has been a losing one financially, but we hope to go on for another season. I hope you will have a pleasant vacation and come back ready for a good season's work."

Many of the men at that time got $21 to $25 a week, a season of 29 weeks, $609 to $725. Others from $30 to $35 or $870 to $1,020 for the season. Very few got more than $35. One, a fine bassoonist, played first bassoon and he told me he never got over $30 weekly.

A man like Strube, a fine violinist and a great musician, told me he got $35. He is now in Baltimore at $5,000 a year.

Akeroyd, the leading 2d violin, got $40. The man on the stand with him, Finmara, got $30. Paul Fox, piccolo, got $30. The third trumpet, Merrill, got all of $21. It is easy to see the Major's idea of the financial worth of orchestral players, also his notion of having a fine summer vacation and supporting a family on $600 to $1,000 a year. All for the love of art. No, he was making money, money, out of them just the same as if he was running a mill.

When Symphony Hall was new, lighting on the stage was very poor, but Maj. Higginson said he could not afford to spend any money that season to make it so the men could see and play in comfort.

I just want to let you know a few things which we know here in Boston. Other reputable Boston musicians can corroborate all I have said.

I know the A. F. of M. has been a blessing to American musicians, and I am always grateful to the men who have spent their lives in the good work.

Mr. C. A. Ellis is manager for Fritz Kreisler and you doubtless saw in the papers last fall that Kreisler had cancelled some $80,000 worth of concerts in order not to offend the dear American public, he being an officer in the Austrian army. The fact is that people would not attend Kreisler concerts and so there being no money in it the tour was closed. This I got from one close to E. A. Ellis, and will name informant if necessary.

WAR SERVICE MEETING.

Fifty members of Local No. 2 of St. Louis, Mo., are in the military and naval service of the United States and a service flag with fifty stars is flung to the breeze every day from the headquarters of the Local.

A committee of three was appointed by order of the Local to devise ways and means to keep in touch with the boys at the front, and let them know that they are still in the hearts and minds of their comrades at home. The committee, Albert Stoessel, Chas. Seymour, Sr., and Vincent C. Wolf have done their full duty, and all St. Louis lads are being well provided for. The very best thing this committee did to properly recognize the boys at the front was to arrange a "War Service Meeting" of the entire organization. This was held on Friday, March 1, 1918, at the headquarters, 3535 Pine St. Out of a membership of 1,200 about 900 were present. A magnificent band of fifty pieces, under the direction of Prof. Max Zach, rendered appropriate numbers during the services. Eloquent, illustrative and instructive addresses were made by President Frank Gecks, President of Local No. 2, A. F. of M., Hon. Xenophon P. Wilfley, representing the Governor of Missouri, and Judge Seldon P. Spencer, chairman of the St. Louis District Exemption Board. All the speakers placed particular emphasis upon the splendid idea that caused such a meeting to be held to hearten up the brothers at the front and give them the solace of knowing that though absent in body, they were still present in the minds of their brother musicians. It would not be a bad idea for other locals to go anddo likewise.

BIG BAND INSTRUMENT MANUFACTURER SELLS FOOD.

Williamsport, Jan. 14.—Brua C. Keefer, Lycoming county food administrator, assisted by local dealers, today sold in a public market a carload of cicoes, at thirteen cents a pound. Housewives were eager to buy and quickly purchased the entire supply, which was secured from Lake Erie.—Philadelphia Press.

Mr. Keefer's big factory at Williamsport, Pa., is busy night and day on government orders for band instruments.

CORPORATE GREED.

During the cold spell the bridge over the Missouri river at St. Charles, Mo., owned by the St. Charles Ferry Co., was burned. People and teams began crossing the river on the ice. The Ferry Co. had the nerve to demand the usual bridge tariff. They did not get it.

WHICH WAS WORSE, JAZZ BAND OR DOG?

New York, Feb. 14.—The damage which a Forty-fourth street dog may do to the peace, contentment and neighborliness of a given vicinity was indicated yesterday in a police court here when the owner of the mutt was arraigned charged with refusing to chasten his loud and powerful St. Bernard. The complainant in the case was a musician, and throughout his testimony the owner of the dog had to be restrained by the court attendants.

"I want to say in behalf of myself and my associates," said the musician in part, "that we have taken every means of stopping this nuisance without recourse to court action. This defendant is unusually stubborn; doesn't know how to keep a dog, and certainly does not know how to silence one. His constant barkings—I'm referring to the dog—have interfered with our work constnatly, and so, after trying every other means, I have been compelled to summon the owner to court. We cannot stand such noise in our line of work. This dog ruins our rehearsals." "What is your line of work?" asked the court. "I am rehearsing a Jazz band," explained the complainant. It was at this time that the owner of the dog was allowed to speak.

"A Jazz band complains about noise, yer Honor," he said. "Why, did y' ever hear the nuts? They ruined my dog, that's what they done. He was all right until he hears a Jazz band, an' now he's as crazy and as noisy as they are. I just as soon live in a boiler foundry as to live in back where these wildcats rehearse their trick music. Don't worry about me or the dog; I'm ready to move out of there to keep the dog from going mad. I got enough Jazz for one lifetime."

CHADLES M. SCHWAB, PRESIDENT OF THE BETHLEHEM STEEL CORPORATION, SAID:

The time is coming when the men of the working clsses, the men without property, will control the destinies of this world of ours. We must look to the workers for a solution of the economic conditions now being conssidered.

I am not one to carelessly turn over my belongings to the uplift of the nation. But I am one who has come to the belief that the workers will rule, and that the sooner we come to a realization of this the better it will be for our country and the world at large.—Address before the Alumni of Public School No. 40, at Grand Hotel, New York, January 24, 1918.

W. N. Cole, for many years connected wiith the famous old Boston Musical Instrument Company, Boston, Mass., makers of the famous "Three Star Cornet," passed to the great unknown beyond Saturday, Dec. 22, 1917. Mr. Cole was one of the most popular men in the musical instrument business in the country. Those who had the good fortune to enjoy his acquaintance, either in a business or social way, will always cherish pleasant memories of having met him.

Five ex-members of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra are serving their country. Just before Christmas the members of the ocrhestra subscribed a pro rata amount which assisted in sending the boys with Uncle Sam a Yuletide remembrance in the shape of a certified check for $25.50 each.

In a lawsuit affecting the Klaw-Erlanger and Shuberts interests the evidence developed that these two, in four years divided between them $543,866.02 net profit from four theaters they had in Philadelphia, Pa., under joint control.

CAMOUFLAGE PATRIOTISM REBUKED

(By C. A. Weaver, of Local No. 75.)

The great war has brought forth many problems for solution. No community, class or individual is permitted to escape. The American Federation of Musicians is no exception to the rule. One of the most interesting controversies to arise has been in the localities in which military cantonments are situated. These cantonments bring together thousands of soldiers for war training purposes and with them of course are many military bands. As was to be expected camouflage patriotism rubbed its hands and chortled gleefully at the prospect of being able to secure "cheaper music" for grand stand functions than the living wage of a musical union would possibly permit. Experience has demonstrated, however, that the only thing necessary to do is to call the attention of the officers in command to the law and the efforts of the patent-leather parasites who love to bask in the sunlight of publicity with the assistance of "cheap music" can be very effectively circumscribed.

The experience of Local No. 75 at Des Moines might be used to point an impressive moral and ornament an instructive tale.

Camp Dodge cantonment is located at Des Moines. As high as thirty thousand soldiers have been camped there at different times. There are eight military bands at the camp.

The military musicians had barely time to get located in their barracks before they began to discover that their services were wanted in Des Moines. The Amalgamated Order of Addlepates were arranging a grand ball at Codfish Temple. Surely the 'Steenth Artillery Band would be willing to play. Whether the band was willing or not some captain or lieutenant was and the band played.

Mrs. Wursen Useless wanted to have a "bazaar" at her palatial home out on Swallowtail avenue. If anything were left after payment of expenses the same would be turned into the Soldiers' Athletic Club treasury. Would Lieutenant So-and-so be so kind as to provide a jazz orchestra for the occasion? Of course he would and the jazz orchestra came.

And so it ran from the Fuss and Feathers Club which specializes in "Pink Tea" to the Hand-Me-Down clothiers' convention which capped the galling climax by ignoring the local musicians and hiring a cantonment band, when Executive Officer C. A. Weaver determined to put the federal law to a test. He thereupon wrote the following letter to the Cantonment Commandant at Camp Dodge:

February 11, 1918.

R. N. Getty, Major General, Camp Dodge, Iowa.

Dear Sir:

As a preliminary to the statements of fact, and the conclusions therefrom, hereinafter contained, I desire to quote General Order No. 261, issued by the Secretary of War and which reads as follows:

"Hereinafter, no enlisted man in the active service of the United States in the army, navy and marine corps, respectively, whether a non-commissioned officer musician or private, shall be detailed, ordered, or permitted to leave his post to engage in any pursuit, business, or performance in civil life, for emolument, hire, or otherwise, when the same shall interfere with the customary employment and regular engagemnt of local civilians in the respective arts, trades or professions.—Sec. 35, Act of Congress, approved June 3, 1916.) Insuring compliance with the spirit of this prohibition, in so far as it applies to army bands, neither the mere assertion that it is not intended to employ other musicians, nor the fact that the army bands are to furnish music without emolument, should be accepted."

My purpose in writing you at this time, is to call attention to the fact that the violations of the above order have become so frequent that as a national officer of the American Federation of Musicians I can no longer allow the situation to continue without protest.

In the vast majority of cases—probably in 95 per cent of them—the soldiers are not to blame. The inspiration and the initiative comes from outside the army. Des Moines has her full contingent of people who are pastmasters in the art of getting something for nothing. And when it comes to devising original means of furthering their ambitious ends along these particular lines, age cannot wither nor custom stale the infinite variety of their resources and capabilities.

I shall not attempt to enumerate all of the specific violations of this order which have come to my notice. Just a few examples will be sufficient for the purposes of this communication.

A few evenings ago the Retail Clothiers Convention was held in the Des Moines Auditorium. A military band was engaged for the occasion.

A few evenings ago an orchestra of fifteen was secured to play at the Hyperian Club—an institution which has used Des Moines musicians exclusively from the day it was established.

A short time ago an army captain engaged a Des Moines musician to furnish an orchestra of fifteen at an official function to be given at Masonic Temple. Shortly afterward the contract was cancelled, on the plea that an order had been put through for an army band to play the engagement.

A lieutenant from the cantonment, only last week, called at a Des Moines fraternal club house, asked that arrangements be made some evening for the soldier members to hold their reception there, and volunteered the information that an army band would be brought down to furnish music for the occasion free of charge.

A few evenings ago a ball was given at the Auditorium, to which the public was invited, with an admission of fifty cents per head, an army jazz band was featured as the attraction, and this experiment, I am told, is to be repeated in the near future.

A soldier musician told one of our members that he had an organization of four who are constantly playing in the Des Moines jurisdiction, and receiving $4.00 per night for their services.

To cap the climax, many of our Des Moines ministers have come to appreciate the feasibility of securing the services of an army band to help swell the attendance at their Sunday morning and evening services. In fact, this fad is becoming so popular that the ancient prejudice against anything like a syncopated measure in church music, is fast fading away, and it is no uncommon thing to hear the same religious musical program which opened with the stately measures of the long meter Doxology terminate with the stirring notes of Alexander's Rag Time Band.

I am perfectly aware of how easy it would be to have our motives impugned and our protest misinterpreted by the general public. However, there are certain facts which are matters of record and which constitute an adequate defense against any charge of selfishness or professional pique which may be lodged against us.

Local No. 75 of the American Federaton of Musicans has a membership of something like two hundred and fifty. It was the first organization to display the Stars and Stripes following the official declaration of war against Germany.

It was the first organization to invest $1,000.00 of its limited treasury in Liberty Bonds.

It has donated hundreds of dollars' worth of free music to the Red Cross movement.

It furnished a 100-piece band free of charge in the draft day parade.

It furnished the Register and Leader with a 60-piece band free of charge when the Smokes for Soldiers campaign was in progress.

In fact, Local No. 75 has ignored no call which has been made upon it, and it will not do so in the future. These citations are given, not in a spirit of vain boasting, but simply to emphasize the fact that if men who are deriving a living for themselves and families in the musical profession are to be in position to continue to answer the calls of their country, in the way of subscribing for Liberty Bonds and donating to Red Cross movements, and keeping in step with the manifold patriotic activities in which they are anxious to have a part, then they must not be crowded out of the field of activity which belongs to them by that unfair competition which the laws of Congress have sought to make impossible.

I hope you will pardon this lengthy encroachment upon your valuable time. I believe, however, you will appreciate the spirit in which this letter is sent. In the future as in the past, Des Moines musicians are willing to go the limit in doing all within their power to advance the cause which today lies nearest to the national heart.

I have the honor to remain,

Very respectfully yours,

C. A. WEAVER,

Member National Executive Committee American Federation of Musicians.

To the foregoing communication Mr. Weaver received the following reply:

February 13, 1918.

Mr. C. A. Weaver, Musicians Club, Des Moines, Iowa.

Dear Sir:

By direction of the Commanding General, I beg to acknowledge receipt by him of your letter of February 11, 1918, in which you quote Paragraph 261, Army Regulations, relating to the use of military bands and musicians in competition with civilian musicians.

Some of the instances cited by you appear to be proper grounds for corrective action by these headquarters; others, however, do not, and it is believed you have misapprehended, to some extent, the purport and intendment of Paragraph 261.

It is believed that this regulation has to do only with a prohibition against competition of Army Bands, or the individual members thereof, with civilian muscians in the ordinary and usual sense in which that term is properly used. It is not considered to have any application whatever to regimental or other military balls or entertainments, or to private entertainments given by members of the military establishment. Neither is it considered to have any application when considered with reference to charitable or religious entertainments.

Its meaning and intent, as understood in the service, is the prevention of military bands, or musicians, from going into the market, so to speak, and taking away any employment which would naturally and properly go to civilian musicians and in that manner interfere with their livelihood.

Any cases which come within the above construction will be properly dealt with and these Headquarters will be obliged for any particulars of such cases that may come to your notice.

It is requested that you submit, at your earliest convenience, any information you may have with regard to the first, fifth and sixth instances set out in your letter.

E. S. HAYES,

Major of Infantry, N. A. Division Adjutant.

The change in the situation has been notable. Local No. 75 has been much pleased with the spirit of co-operation shown by the officer in command at Camp Dodge and no trouble is now anticipated in view of the fact that both sides are interested in the enforcement of the federal law.

It should be borne in mind that Local 75 has not been disposed to hold the Camp Dodge musicians responsible for the situation. Privately they resented the idea of being compelled to do so much extra work for nothing but as soldiers they had to obey orders. Many of the boys were Federation members and it galled them to do that which they did not believe to be right. Sometimes—upon rare occasions—they received a little money for their work. The usual remuneration, however, was a ham sandwich, or an ice cream cone. If these strength nourishing viands were all gone by the time the hour arrived to feed the musicians they were sent back to the barracks with the solacing music of a "vote of thanks" tingling their auditory nerves.

"All's well that ends well," and Local No. 75 hopes that the experience of the past year may be of benefit to all other Locals whose rights may have been invaded and where no proper test of the letter and spirit of Official Order No. 261 has been made.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Globe, Ariz., Dec. 20, 1917.

Mr. E. E. Wise, Secretary Local 701, A. F. of M., Box 112, Miami, Ariz.

My Dear Mr. Wise:

We are being called upon in this nation to do our bit in more ways than one, but you and those associated with you have not only done your bit, but your utmost.

In the name of the American Red Cross and especially the Globe Chapter, we wish to thank you for the splendid music rendered at the last dance. In the name of those boys who have gone forth to fight that democracy might live, we also thank you.

The splendid service given by you will mean much in this district. You have not only taught everyone a lesson in patriotism but you have also shown what can be done by a body of men who are filled with a desire to back up the work of the Red Cross in every way. No one who attended the dance could have been otherwise than impressed by the splendid showing of the musicians who tendered their services to their nation.

Personally, as Chairman of the Chapter, I wish to tell you that your service has meant much to me. Mere words can never express my gratefulness.

Wishing for the continued success of your organization and the loyal support of the citizens in giving a place to musicians in this district, also extending to you the Season's Greetings, I beg to remain, Very truly yours,

REV. F. M. JOHNSON, Jr.,

Chairman of Globe Chapter.

Most of the Locals have done equally well, but have not received acknowledgment as in this case.—Ed.

IMPORTANT JUDICIAL DECISION.

About twenty years ago, a suit was brought in the Federal Court of the Eastern District of Missouri against an excursion steamer for $888.00 due musicians for services rendered during the excursion season. At the same time suits were also entered in behalf of the engineers, firemen, mates, pilots and deckhands for wages due. Federal Judge Priest allowed all the claims entered, except the musicians' claim. In the case of the musicians the honorable court decided "that musicians were not required to navigate a boat, therefore their claim was not allowed." This, in spite of the fact that this boat never would have left the wharf without musicians, and furthermore that the musicians depended upon their earnings to support themselves and dependents. A similar case arose in St. Louis in 1917.

An orchestra rendered service for the Steamer Belle of the Bends during the season of 1917 and at the finish of the season the Belle of the Bends owed the orchestra a balance of $276.95. Suit was brought in the same Federal Court, in this instance Judge Dyer on the bench. Judge Priest's decision of 20 years before was reversed, and the musicians' claim as necessary employes of the boat recognized. This is a great step forward as recognizing musicians as laborers necessary to the navigation of a boat used for excursion purposes. Mr. Frank K. Ryan, the attorney who handled both cases, that of 20 years ago and of today, in reporting the case to Local No. 2, A. F. of M. of St. Louis, Mo., says:

"The decision of Judge Dyer in this case approving the report of the master, Irvine Mitchell, to whom the matter had been referred, is in harmony with later cases of the United States Courts which hold that any person rendering services aboard of a vessel engaged in navigation which are in furtherance of the business in which the vessel is employed with the exception of the master of the vessel, are in a legal sense "mariners" and therefore entitled to a lien for their wages, and in construing a late statute of the United States that all servants rendering services to such a vessel have a lien for their wages, it is held that servants include any person rendering beneficial services to the occupied steamer, except the master, and in this case the referee found from the evidence that the services rendered by these musicians to the Steamer Belle of the Bends were, in legal effect, those of mariners according to recent decisions, and also servants under the above status.

In so finding in this admiralty case, the master and Judge Dyer, in principle, followed a decision of Judge Trieber, of the Arkansas District Court in which he held in a bankruptcy case that musicians were "laborers" under the provisions of the bankruptcy law giving a lien to laborers for services rendered the bankrupt. The original claimant in this case and others of the claimants in the first instance excepted to any lien being given for these musicians' claims on the ground that they were not mariners and relying upon the old decisions which hold that they are not mariners and the absence of any new decision holding that they are mariners, and these exceptions were again raised against the report of the referee but were overruled by Judge Dyer in confirming the referee's report."

VALUE OF THE BAND.

At the annual meeting of the Orchard City band Sunday night, the old officers were retained and plans for the coming year discussed.

War conditions are hitting the band very hard. Not only has the usual business been seriously curtailed, but it is constantly called upon to donate its services for all sorts of occasions.

"We want and intend to do our full share and a little more," said Manager Power. "Most of our men are poor and have families to support, but we donated $117.00 worth of music last year and stand ready to duplicate or increase the amount this year."

"But we ask the public to remember that while the speaker, the singer and the volunteer worker along most other lines can give service without any actual cost to himself beyond his time, the keeping up of the band requires constant and heavy overhead expense for rent, heat, light, instruments, uniforms and music. And, if the pay business is to fall away and we donate on all occasions, it would simply mean bankruptcy.

"However, we believe the situation carries its own remedy, as soon as the people come to understand it. There ought to be more music used for all sorts of occasions than ever before.

"The war strain is beginning to tell and it will become greater and harder to bear as the months go by. We must learn to conserve ourselves. What we need more than anything else just now is to be able to relax at times and recuperate for the struggle ahead. And nothing will help us do that quite so well as the band.

"Army officers know well the tonic value of music. On long, weary marches, the men are encouraged to sing, and the lagging steps again take an elesticity. In critical moments of depression and possible defet, the band strikes up, and eyes brighten, heads are thrown back and chins thrust out again at the magic of its message.

"Thrift has to do only with waste and unwise spending. And there surely can be no wiser expenditure of money at this time than for something, which we all know will put heart and hope into our people. To employ a band today, is a real mark of patriotism—a real work of charity, not to the band but to the people who hear it.

"Prezemysl stood the longest siege of the present war, from November 11, 1914, to March 22, 1915. Provisions ran out. No supplies of any sort could be gotten into the city except by aeroplane. It was the dead of winter; the people were ragged and cold and starving and hopeless. And one of the enlightening photographs that came out of the city after its capture by the Russians, was that of a regimental band playing a concert in the snow to a vast crowd who had come to forget their misery in the music.

"We will nevrr be called upon to suffer as those Galicians suffered, but the principle of the thing is the same, whether in Prezemysl or Burlington. And just as soon as it is once understood there will be no more talk of cutting out band music for any sort of function in war time in order to save xpense."—Burlington, Ia., Gzette, Feb. 12, 1918.

WHEN IT WILL END.

Absolute knowledge have I none, but my aunt's washerwoman's sister son heard a policeman on his beat, say to a laborer in the street that he had a letter just last week written in the finest Greek, from a Chinese Coolie in Timbuctoo, who said the niggers in Cuba knew of a colored man in a Texas town who got it straight from a circus clown that a man in Klondyke heard the news from a gang of South American Jews, about somebody in Borneo who heard a man who claimed to know of a swell society female rake whose mother-in-law will undertake to prove that her seventh husband's sister's niece has stated in a printed piece, that she has a son who has a friend who knows when the war is going to end.

MADMAN AMUCK.

The Quaker is best known on account of his conscientious scruples against shedding of blood, but every Quaker farmer has a first-class double barreled shotgun loaded with buckshot hanging in his pantry, so that should a mad dog suddenly run amuck, or sheepkiller be discovered among the sheep, he promptly gets down that gun and doesn't hesitate to use it on that mad dog or sheepkiller, as the case may be.

Figuratively speaking, there is a mad dog and sheepkiller running amuck among the nations of the earth in the person of the Kaiser of Germany, and it's up to the nations to take down their guns and exterminate this dangerous madman who has already done too much injury to the people of the whole world, including those he calls "My people." His latest outbreak, namely, his address to "His army" on the eve of the birth of Christ, proves that instead of being received with "Hochs" by his deluded victims, he should be in a straight-jacket in a padded cell of a madhouse. Here is an extract:

> "The year 1917, with its great battles, has proved that the German people have in the Lord of Creation above an unconditional and avowed Ally, on whom it can absolutely rely. Without Him, all would have been in vain."

It has always been a trick of the Kaiser to couple his name with God.

The first batch of recruits he addressed at Pottsdam, in 1888, after becoming Emperor, he told them: "You are about to be sworn into my army. It will be for you to unquestionably obey any order issued to you. If I ordered you to shoot your father or mother you would have to obey. I am your Emperor and commander-in-chief by virtue of Divine right, and I am responsible to God alone."

When the German contingent was about to sail for China, to help suppress the Boxer uprising, he issued to the troops a proclamation instructing them that they must not give quarter or take prisoners; that they must wage war as ruthless as the Hun, so that for a thousand years a Chinaman would always look askance at a German soldier. Most people thought this line of talk was merely the exhuberance of conceit, but the present war proves it represented the true character of the man. He has become a menace to the welfare of the human race. He must be suppressed at all cost, or civilization will be set back a thousand years, if not destroyed altogether.

HOW THE DISASTER OCCURRED.

A gentleman in Cincinnati employs two negroes to work on his rather extensive gardens, which he personally oversees. One morning Sam did not appear.

"Where is Sam, George?" he asked.

"In de hospital, sah?".

"In the hospital? Why, how in the world did that happen?"

"Well, Sam he been a-tellin' me ev'ry mo'nin' foh ten yeahs, he gwine to lick his wife 'cause o' her naggin'."

"Well, yestiddy she done ovahheah him. Da's all."

Lawyers, as a rule, claim that they cannot be considered as a Union, but here comes the Grievance Committee of the St. Louis Bar Association and has one John A. Hyde with an office in the Wainwright Building arrested on charge of practicing law without a license, in other words, without a card, showing that he must be a member of the Lawyers Union in good standing.

In answer to President Wilson's great message the Kaiser ordered another hospital ship sunk.

ACROSTIC

By Rev. W. A. Bowman

Prof. Wertheim now do honor give;
Respects the man; long may he live!
Of him it truly may be said:
"For years in music here he lead."

So honor now the hoary head.

With the orchestra and violin
Efficient ever he has been,
Refining instrumental tones,
That thrilled the heart, made happy homes,
His effort, souls with music fills,
Especially seen while bow he trills,
In hoary age, deserves respect;
May all Fremont these facts reflect.

A fitting ovation was paid Prof. S. Wertheim, veteran musician, who has honored Fremont by his presence for many years, in the testimonial concert given for his benefit by Light Guard and Modern Woodmen bands of Fremont and the Clyde band assisted by several members of the Matinee Musical Club and other local artists at the opera house Monday night.

Prof. Wertheim is primarily a violin artist but there is perhaps no one man in our city who has done so much for the musical betterment of Fremont than Prof. Wertheim, with his composing, playing and teaching. As an orchestral leader also he will always stand out prominently in the musical history of this city. With his advancing years this pioineer musician has been compelled to gradually cease his musical activities. It was with a deep feeling of appreciation that admiring friends arranged the concert in compliment to Prof. Wertheim Monday evening and the entire proceeds of the entertainment will be used in properly caring for the venerable gentleman in his old age.

The massed bands inspiringly played the Tannhauser March by Wagner and triumphantly brought the program to a conclusion with a rendition of Sousa's band march "Stars and Stripes Forever."—Fremont (Neb.) News.

KEEFERS
OVER THE TOP

THE Regulars,, the National Guard, the National Army, the Navy and Marines—all are getting great consignments of Keefer Instruments. Our entire output, practically, is now going to the Quartermaster's Depot.

But we'll make every effort to care for our military band friends—especially bands volunteering as a body, and bands presenting instruments to members about to leave for service.

"Over the top" of all competition in peace times, now—with every one of our Union Workmen exempt from field service and "doing his bit" by making the best instruments better than they have ever been made before—why there's no comparison with any other make. Keefers are WAY over the top!

Washington's Great Trombonist
KARL OTTO
First Trombonist U. S. Marine Band

Washington, D. C., April 23, 1915.
Brua C. Keefer, Pres.:

I received your very fine instrument, and in writing of same I can not speak too highly. I was intending to try another make, but a brother musician and member of Local 161, A. F. of M., advised that I try a Keefer before making choice. In justice to you and to the instrument, can say that I am fully satisfied in every respect, and feel sure the instrument is as nearly perfect in workmanship and musical qualities as human intelligence could make it. I have been playing trombone for thirty years and can certainly lay claim to being something of a judge of what a trombone should be, and I find your "Emperor" Model worthy of my highest praise. With best wishes for the future, I am,

Very truly yours,
KARL OTTO,
First Trombone U. S Marine Band.

Trial allowed, of course. Catalog sent to any address or training camp on request.
